

George Tung
Managing Director &
Head, Wholesale Bank
Hong Kong Branch

George joined UOB in 2010, is currently leading the Wholesale Banking teams to cultivate the relationships with global conglomerates, domestic large and mid-cap corporates, the Chinese state-owned enterprises and the privately owned enterprises, financial institutions, private equity funds, etc.. As the Head of Wholesale Banking Hong Kong, George is also in charge of Investment Banking, Transaction Banking, and the middle offices.

George graduated from York University, Toronto, Canada, with a B.A. degree in Mathematics for Commerce and a B.A.S Degree in Accounting. He started his banking career in Hong Kong as a management trainee at Kincheng Banking Corp (later merged into BOC HK Group), and continued to develop his management and business origination skills in the areas of corporate finance, asset-backed finance, and credit risks control. Before joining UOB HK, George also served at MUFG and Mizuho. George has over 25 years of extensive banking experience in China, Hong Kong, Taiwan and the ASEAN countries.